Bro Stef's Commentary:

Based on Genesis 22:19

Let's set the stage here. Abraham has just been told by God to take his only son to the mountain of the Lord. Most commentators believe that that mountain is the actual temple mount that is in Israel today. Back to the story...Can you imagine what must have been racing through Abraham's heart and mind. Just consider with me for a minute, how would you feel knowing you were going to have to kill your child and end their life? I'm not sure I could have gone as far as Abraham did. Abraham's faith is amazing. What's even more impressive about this account is the level of love Abraham had for God. You can't have that level of faith in someone you don't love and trust with your very breath!

Now let's fast forward towards the end of the story. We all know what happens. Isaac was saved by the Lord who told Abraham not to harm the boy. Now we read in Genesis 22:19 that Abraham rose early and went to Beersheba and dwelt there. Where was Isaac? Why did the Holy Spirit leave out any mention of Isaac? Abraham came within seconds of killing his only son, why wouldn't the scripture have ended this story with Isaac and Abraham going to Beersheba arm in arm together? Wouldn't that have been a great ending. I love great endings like that.

Something to think about...

I'm sure Isaac did return with Abraham to Beersheba. I believe the Holy Spirit deliberately left that part out because Isaac is a type of Christ, who after his death was taken up to heaven and will not appear again until the servant, the Holy Spirit, brings back the Bride for the Son. The Holy Spirit is in this day gathering among the world a Bride for the Son. And when the Bride is gathered, then the Holy Spirit is going to bring the Bride to the Son and shall arise to meet them in the clouds of the air and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Who is the Bride, today's believers in Yeshua, Jesus Christ. Similarly, Isaac didn't appear on the scene again until the time of meeting his bride. See Genesis chapter 24 for the account of Isaac meeting his bride. So we see, here in Genesis 22:19 and Genesis 24 a Prophetic display of those things to come that are just on the horizon. I hope this helps to bring this scripture to life for you. Reading the scripture and knowing what the Holy Spirit is saying to us is exciting. This demonstrates that the interpretation of scripture really does come from the Holy Spirit in our lives! Study to show ourselves approved... 2Ti 2:15

In The News Commentary:

The headlines above speak for themselves. We are certainly are living in interesting times to say the least. The headline that really got my attention and I find it really interesting is that now there are more Jews living in Israel than are in New York. This is a first by the way...

I find it an amazing thing that the more harm that comes to the Jews the more they come together. Let's face it, they are being removed from their land little bits at a time and yet more Jews keep going to their Homeland. Being a Jew I have absolutely no desire to go to Israel right now. It would take a miracle of God to get me there. I like my life in the U.S. No one is telling me to leave my home and people aren't shooting at me. I also don't have the fear of a missile flying through my living room window, or should I say... at least not now. According to all intelligence reports that could change however. My point is this, with all that happens in Israel most Jews feel this tugging in their heart to return home. I guess this is a huge conformation that God is working in the hearts of His people and He will see to it that scripture is fulfilled no matter what the climate there might be. Thank God he's in control...
