News Alert Class: Iran and The Last Days

Bro Stef's Commentary:

Speeches like this only add fuel to the already burning fire. When the Pope or the President of The United States calls for the formation of a illegitimate state at Israel's expense, this causes countries like Iran to become emboldened and to come to the rescue of it's abused brother state. Hence, they escalate their political talk to threaten those against them with nuclear war or mass murders within those countries who are their enemies.

Excerpt from the Popes speech on Easter Sunday April 16, 2006:

"May the international community, which reaffirms Israel's just right to exist in peace, assist the Palestinian people to overcome the precarious conditions in which they live and to build their future, moving toward the constitution of a state which is truly their own," Benedict said. Former U.S. Ambassador to Morocco and Fox News correspondent, Marc Ginsberg, said on Fox News Saturday April 29, 2006 that he was sad to have to report that he believes Iran will develop a nuclear bomb. As I watched the interview with Mr. Ginsberg and how he discussed the process politician's go through with sanctions, it became clear to me that he was right in his assessment. As the world body tries to talk and negotiate with Iran, Iran is brilliantly using this time to build their nuclear weapons arsenals. I also thought about Ezekiel 38 and how Russia and it's Arab alliances will come against Israel in the "appointed time." For Persia (Iran) to be considered a threat to Israel, I think Iran will have to have nuclear weapons that cause Israel and the world great concern. It seems to me as I read how God has always delivered His people, the odds are always staked against them (The Jews) and that deliverance seems humanly impossible. Should Iran develop and maintain a nuclear arsenal, one could say that the cards are effectively stacked against Israel. Think of it like this...Israel's enemies are most of the known world, but, the ring leaders who will lead the charge are bully countries like Russia, China, Iran (Arab – Muslem Alliance). That really does stack the deck against tiny Israel!

Therefore, with this in mind, it seems reasonable to me that Iran and the Arab alliance will be armed with nuclear capabilities and determined to destroy Israel. At this precise moment God steps in, like He did at the Red Sea when He delivered His people from Pharaoh and parted the waters, so He will destroy Israel's enemies in that battle and the world will have to acknowledge it was a miracle - of God like proportions!

The willingness of many Israelis to make concessions on the borders of Jerusalem in exchange for peace is an indication that Bible prophecy, related to the Jews and Jerusalem, is nearing fulfillment. For a great

"For Zion's sake I will not be silent and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest."- Isaiah 62.1 1 audio to listen to click here and forward to 24.75 minutes for the segment on the Essay of False Peace.

There has been a fundamental change in general opinion with regard to Jerusalem since the 2003 election when there was a near consensus that the borders of Jerusalem were non-negotiable.

Even the politicians in Israel today are starting to mention plans that include the giveaway of portions of the city of Jerusalem, a city that was only reunited after 2,000 years - at the end of the Six-Day War in 1967. Present-day concessions on Jerusalem will lead to the End Times scenario that is found in Bible prophecy.

Zechariah 12:2 says that those who have control of Jerusalem will be intoxicated with power. Zechariah 1:12-16 says that God is aggressively possessive of Jerusalem and will return to Jerusalem and build His Temple here. Isaiah 51:3, Joel 2:3, and Ezekiel 36:35 say that Jerusalem will be returned to the Garden of Eden. The Psalmist wrote that God has chosen Jerusalem as the place where He will rule and reign from and dwell among His people forever - Psalm 132:13, 14.

The bottom line here is that God will not allow His city or country to be permanently occupied by gentile ruler ship. Let's not forget, God is jealous for His land and Jerusalem. He will not rest until He and His people are completely established in the land of Israel. See Eze 39:25; 2 Chronicles 6:1-11; Micah 4:1; Isaiah 2:3; Zechariah 14; Psalm 24 and Na 1:2-8 .

In conclusion, and I hope I am wrong on this one, I believe Iran will develop nuclear weapons and will march against Israel in our generation. I think the world will try to negotiate this issue to death, giving Iran all the time they need to get the job done.

The articles below are evidence that support my report for this month. I have also included some positive stories as well about how Israel is contributing to the world in a positive way.
