No President in American history has done more to injure and hurt Israeli-American relations as the current President - George W. Bush. He has single handedly taken the U.S. from protection status by God to a potential enemy of God. He has accomplished this in two ways:

1. He has asked Israel to pull out of the Gaza Strip and the West Bank.
2. He promised the PA a pull back of Israel to the 1949 Armistice borders agreement - pre 1967 . See the map of Israel pre 1967 here
 - a. The agreement in effect cuts the heart out of Israel. It makes defending her borders almost impossible.
 - b. As you can see on the map above, the red areas were occupied by Jordan and Egypt. Egypt had the red area to the west, Jordan had the red area to the east. Our president wants Israel to get into a time machine and roll back history to this scenario, with one big difference, the PA (one entity) will control the territories in red and this entity is hell bent on Israel's complete annihilation!

What our gracious president did to our closest friend, was to promise the PA that they, Israel's sworn enemy, could have all red territories. How would any of us like our sworn enemy, as an example let's say al-Quida, in the heart of our country able to strike us at will? This in effect allows Israel to be held hostage to the east and the west. The enemy of their soul is in their heart land and can strike at will, in any direction to destroy them. The other thing this accomplishes is to encourage uprising and war as a primary means to cause Israel to compromise it's countries security and bend to the will of the PA and the world community.

What does this mean to the United States of America?

Before I answer the question above, let me take a moment and outline why I am so concerned about this issue.

When president Bush came into office he came in under two banners; one was morality, Christian principals, integrity and the other, he was a self declared friend of Israel. The Christian Evangelical's trusted what he said, myself included, and we voted him into office. We were all led to believe that he would stand up for Israel and America's best interests. To stand up for Israel is to side with God, thereby allowing God to provide His protection to our country. In his first term he did what no American president ever did, he promised the PA a two state solution. The Christian community that understands Prophecy was shocked. We (Middle East Peace Update Report) sent out report after report warning our readers of the dangers of this decision. We also communicated with the White House our disapproval of this decision on our president's part. Things calmed down and then in 2000 the PA went to war via suicide maniacs against our friend Israel. Point one...appeasement never works.

After the promise of a two state solution, how does the PA reward the international community? They declare war against Israel and spit in our eyes.

This brings us to September 2001. A day none of us will ever forget. Over 3,000 of our brothers, sisters and friends were slaughtered in the 9-11 tragedy. Point two...appeasement with hateful fanatics never ever works. We are again rewarded with terror because we remain a friend to Israel and now we find ourselves embroiled in Iraq trying to keep the terrorists in check there instead of here. The more you compromise with insane fanatics the more they take. They see this as a signal of weakness and turn up the pressure. If you turn the coin over, the opposite is true, however, the more we demand from them and the more we do not compromise, the more passive they will become.

Now we are currently in 2005. Spain is attacked, the world sees one of the largest Tsunami disasters in modern times. The African continent is coming apart at the seams via social strife and Aids. Earthquakes are everywhere, chicken flu viruses that are killing those in the prime of life in China and spreading to the west and we have no vaccine to stop it. Now London is under attack. Al-Quida now has nuclear weapons. Christian sects like the United Methodists, Presbyterian's and others are departing from the faith and coming against the Apple of God's Eye – Israel by demanding that they dismantle all communities, cities and counties in the Jewish West Bank and Gaza areas. If all of this isn't bad enough, we insult the God of our forefathers who founded this country - God is removed from our schools and court rooms and now our society at large. Homosexuality runs unchecked, our children murder one another, themselves and their parents. Interesting that much of what we are seeing now has happened as the world moves further away from God in it's core values.

In light of all this, what does our president do, he gets on world wide television and promises the PA that Israel will divide it's country up into bite size pieces, and draw back to the pre 1967 borders and removes all of Israel's leverage at the bargaining table. The blood of Israel's young men who died to help bring about a free Israel is being disrespected and trampled under foot for political expediency.

In my opinion, our president has betrayed those that elected him in one single speech. He betrayed Israel and the promises he made to them in 2000. Point three... appeasement with hateful fanatics and enemies of God never ever - ever works.

If you are shocked, you shouldn't be. Our president is a card carrying member of the United Methodists. The very ones that hate Israel. I do want to make a note here...There are Methodist's that are very much on the side of Israel and do side with God. For our purposes here I am referring to the political organization within the United Methodist Church. Are you starting to see any connections? You bet we all are. I never thought I would have to say this, but it looks to me like our president is trying to send the terrorists a message, we don't want you to attack us, we are siding with you against Israel. For our sakes I hope I'm proved wrong! If we as a county buckle and give in to the PA, Hamas and all terrorist maniacs we will reap the whirl wind. We must stand up, join together and fight against all injustices against us and our friends, including Israel! This is who we are as a people. This is who our God is as well. He is a defender of the weak and mistreated! We must follow in His footsteps and not waiver!

Now to answer the question above. What does this mean to the United States of America?

With all that is happening around us, it is critical that we stand with Israel, not against her. The prophets Ezekiel, Zechariah, Jeremiah, Isaiah and Daniel all tells us that God will bless those who bless Israel and he will curse all of those who curse Israel. Our Lord does not look kindly at nations who come against Israel. He takes this as a personal attack against him. When this happens he must act. He may not act immediately, but rest assured He will act to defend the Apple of His Eye!

My fear is that we have been thus far protected by God, but we are coming dangerously close to the point of no return. If we turn on Israel for self preservation, we will most assuredly suffer the judgment of our God! The reason for this is simple. To turn on Israel because we are afraid, is an act of cowardice based in fear, not faith. This would be an outward sign that we truly trust in ourselves not the God who founded this country. It would signal the Lord that we have no faith in Him any longer and we traded in our faith for fear. God help us all if this occurs!

Now is the time to pray for our country and for the peace of Jerusalem!

Keep looking up. He could return at any moment.

Jewish leaders call a church resolution an abomination

Following the adoption of a resolution nearly identical to the resolution passed by a second major church denomination in the United States these two mainline church groups have called for Israel to dismantle its West Bank barrier that has been erected to keep Palestinian terrorists out of Israel.

Jewish leaders are saying that the resolution is an abomination it's shocking and depressing that these two church groups would be so blind and deaf to Jewish suffering. One Jewish leader said that he had no doubt that had these church delegates seen the human face of the victims of Palestinian terrorism the outcome would have been different.

Disciples of Christ to Israel: Tear down the wall

The general assembly of the Disciples of Christ has adopted a resolution calling for Israel to dismantle its West Bank security barrier, passing the measure by a clear majority on Wednesday in a vote that was postponed by a day.

Although amended slightly before the vote, the resolution was nearly identical to the one adopted earlier this month by the closely related United Church of Christ. As in that case, the Simon Wiesenthal Center was among the most vocal of Jewish and Christian groups calling for the church to dismiss the resolution. On Wednesday, it expressed its extreme dissatisfaction at the vote's outcome.

"The resolution is an abomination," said Rabbi Abraham Cooper, associate dean of the Wiesenthal Center. "It is shocking and depressing that a vanguard of social activism like the Disciples of Christ would be so blind and deaf to Jewish suffering," he told The Jerusalem Post.

After speaking with many of the delegates to the general assembly in Portland, he added, "I believe that this does not represent the grassroots members" of the Disciples of Christ church. And we in the Jewish community need to see that it does not become representative of them."

The center had arranged for Tzippi Cohen, a survivor of the Cafe Hillel bombing in Jerusalem in 2003, to address the assembly before the vote, but the Disciples of Christ denied her that privilege in a late schedule change.

"I have no doubt that had these delegates seen the human face of the victims of Palestinian terrorism, the outcome could have been much different," Cooper said.
