

Middle East Peace Update Report

This was sent to me by my wife. Karlyn thought you would like to see the gift God has bestowed on this artist. This causes me think about the many talents God has gifted all of us with. God's creativity is endless. 1 Corinthians 12:1-11

Subject: WOW - AMAZING ART!

I found this to beautiful not to share. What a gift this artist has.... Enjoy!

Karlyn

Eric Grohe is an artist of large life-like murals. He turns walls into works of art. The scale, realism and attention to detail are incredible.

Before photo - typical concrete & stucco facade

Preparing the canvas - plastering the wall surface

The wall starts to take on a 3-dimensional appearance

Eric in his element, 30' off the ground. He does most of the artwork by himself & researches, paints and designs each project from scratch. His wife Kathy, also an artist, serves as project manager.

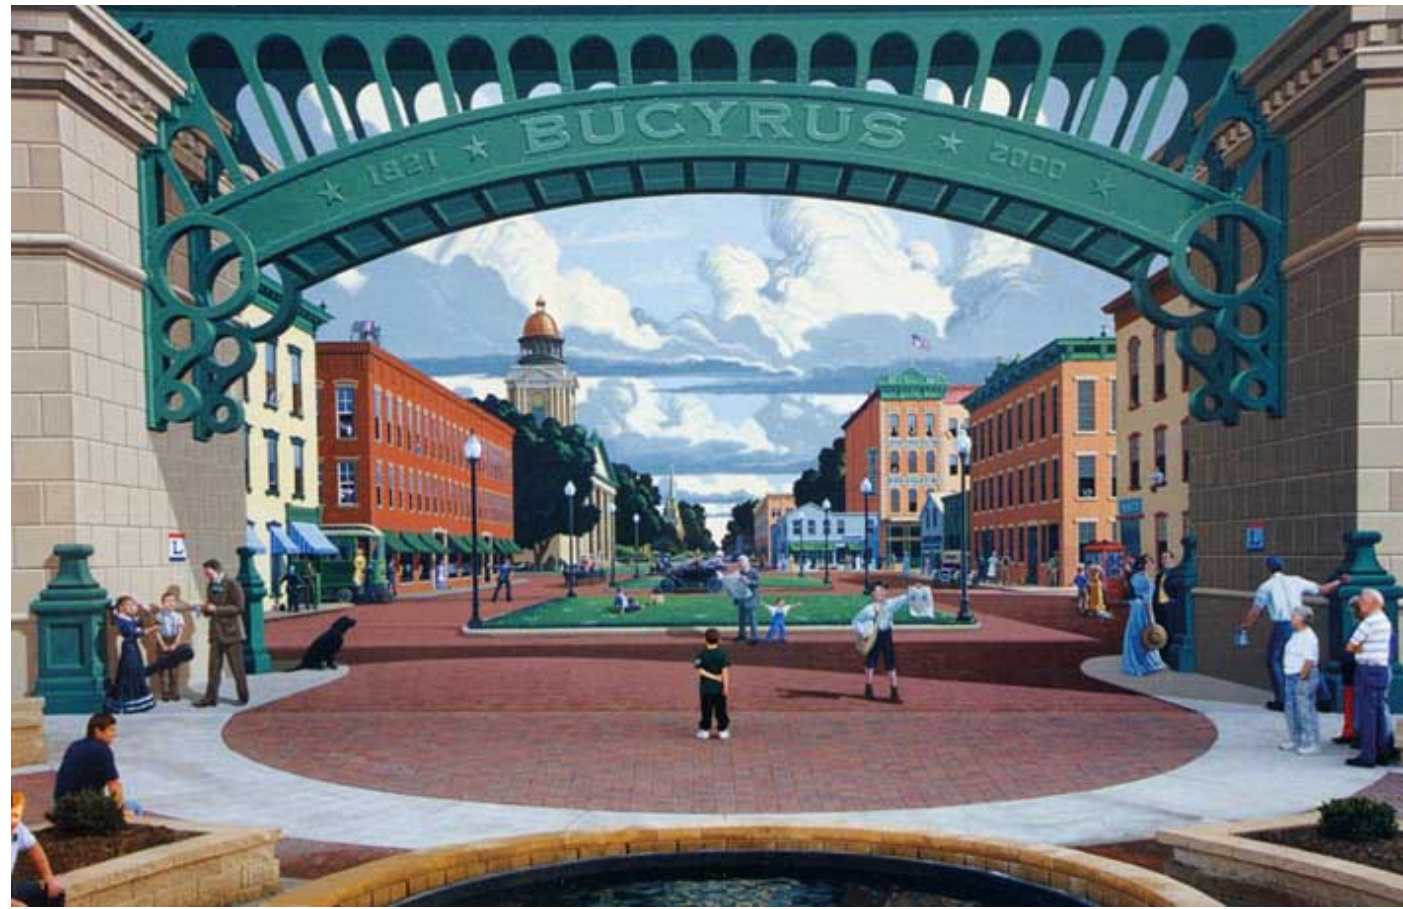

Here are some more examples of Eric's projects....

Great American Crossroad - Bucyrus, Ohio - Before

After

Liberty Remembers

Before

After - hard to believe you're looking at a flat 2-dimensional wall

How to dress up a Shopping Mall - Niagara, NY

After. . .

After - close-up

The other side

After (I wonder how many birds fly into this wall on a daily basis?)

Indoor Murals - Miller Brewery

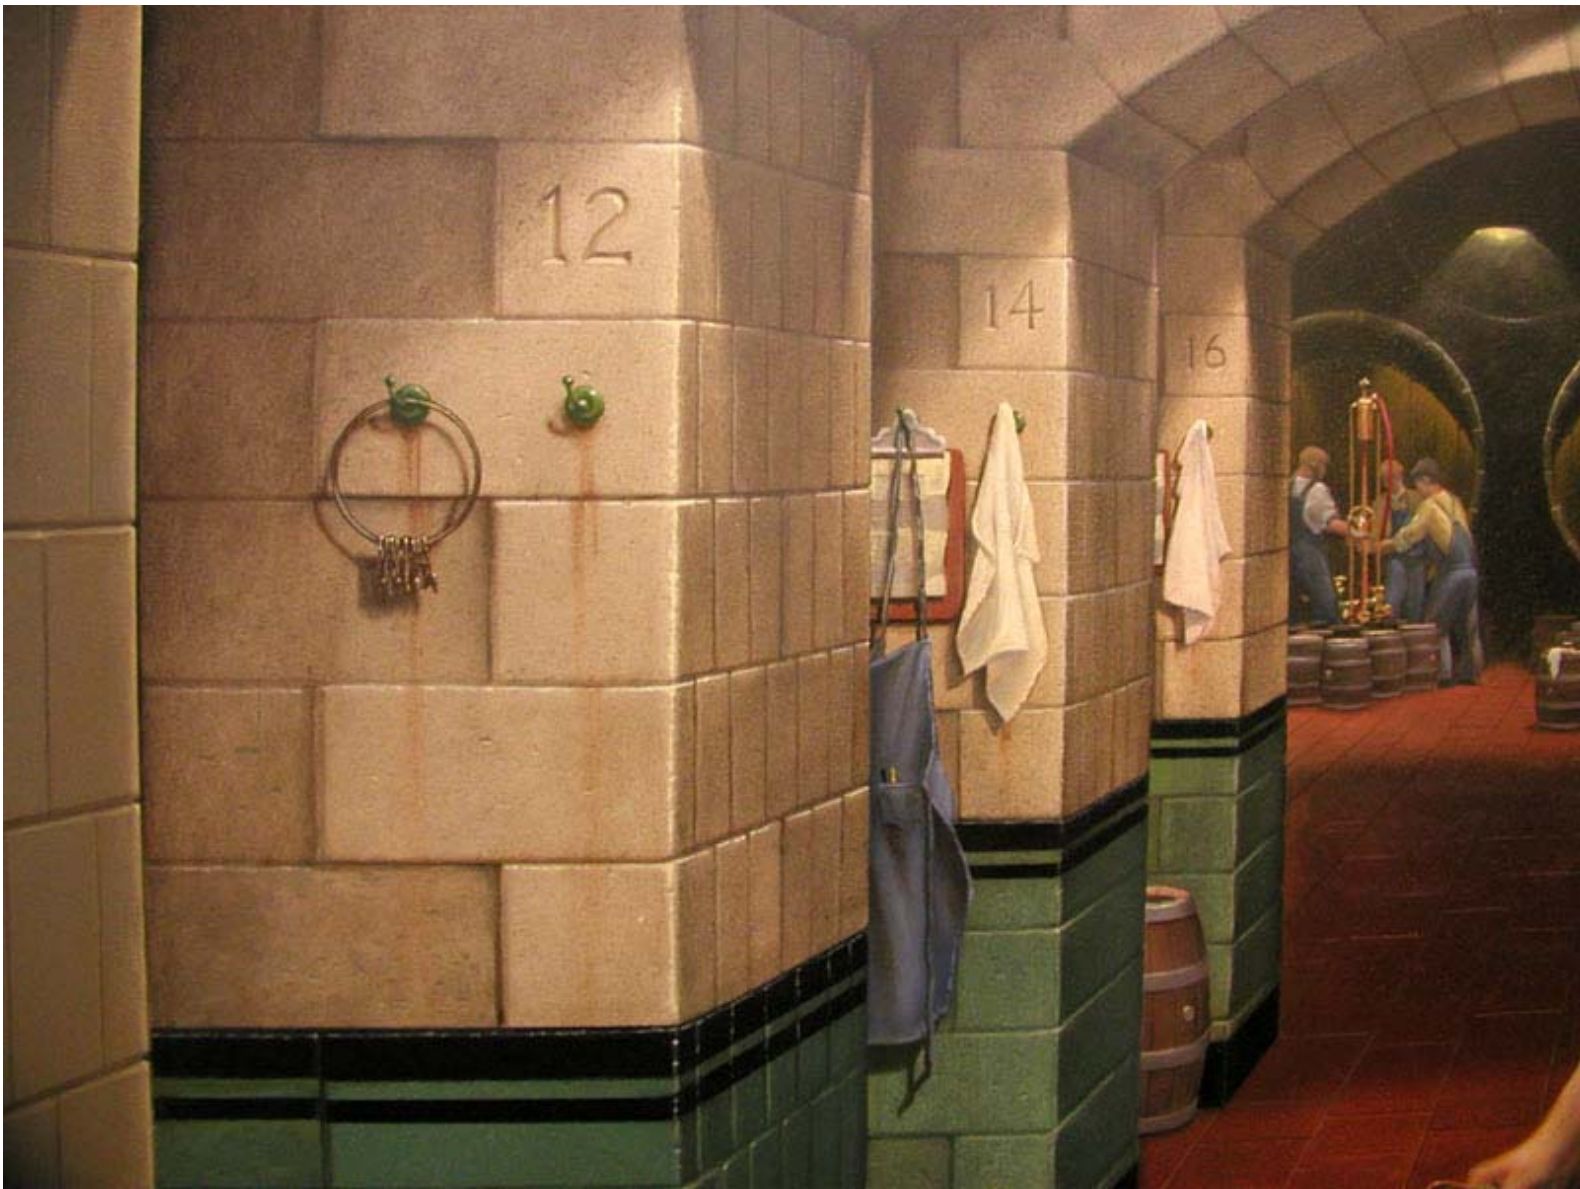

Hallway Before - Miller Fermenting Rooms

After Photos - Past meets Present in the Miller Brewery Fermenting Rooms - hooks, clipboards and aprons were added to the surface of the murals to enhance the illusion. You're looking at flat walls!

Detail view looking down the illusionary hallway in the previous mural.
